NEWS RELEASE

July 17, 2011

On July 13, 2011, Bluffton Police responded to the Mill Creek subdivision in reference to a report of an individual seen peeping into a window of an 8 year olds bedroom. Earlier during the day, this same individual was seen talking to children (ages 4 and 8) and trying to get them to come over to him. Fortunately the 8 year old juvenile, told the 4 year old not to talk to strangers and they went inside the house. Later that evening, at approximately 9:00 p.m., the 8 year old juvenile saw the same individual looking into her bedroom window. The police were contacted and the individual was gone upon police arrival.

On July 16, 2011 another juvenile saw the man and his vehicle over at the Mill Creek Pool. This juvenile recognized the man from the previous incident. The individual was confronted by the parents of the juvenile and they were able to get his license plate. The parents then reported the incident to the Bluffton Police and the investigation resulted in the arrest of Bret Holterman for violation of SC Statute 16-17-0470(a) Peeping Tom. He was transported to the Beaufort County Detention Center and was released after posting bond.

The Bluffton Police Department requests that if anyone else has seen Holterman near their home to contact Sgt. Babbiewicz at 843-706-4563.
